National Geographic Bee Winners Advance to ALA Finals.

Each of our upper elementary grades and middle school classes recently completed a National Geographic Bee Challenge. The top scorers in each division are advancing to the Finals on January 24th at 9:30 AM. Parents are welcome to attend.

The students who advanced are John

Guevara, Cheyla Johnson, Andrew Hawley, Taylor McCloud, Samantha Sandoval, Nadia Trujillo, Terrance Wood, Hannah Morales, Taylor Powell and Elana Cruz.

The Finals will take place in the Sanctuary & and the winner has a chance to compete for a state championship and college

Kindness Abounds at Abundant Life Academy

This morning ALA students testified during morning announcements about acts of kindness they have done during this kindness challenge. One student told about how he and his Dad helped the homeless. Another

Student told about acts of kindness she did to help her sister. Students are completing random acts of kindness as part of our kindness challenge and as teachers take note we are nearing our goal. We are getting close to a pizza party next Friday. We are very close to filling up the allotted amount in the ALA outside of the school office. Hopefully the students will continue to be kind and teachers will take note. Parents are invited to the assembly next week at 10:45 if you can make it.

PIZZA! PIZZA!

Next Friday we are hoping to have a school wide pizza party for our Kindness Celebration. If we do and you ordered pizza for your child your account will be credited for the lunch that day because it is on ALA. The following Friday,

"Thank you to Rich Cornetto and Accurate Door and Hardware for blessing the entire school with pizza on January 27th."

Rich Cornetto of Accurate Door and Hardware of Totowa, NJ has donated pizza for the entire school for Big Birthday Celebration! The same principle applies, if you already paid for pizza that day your account will be credited for the lunch.

Warriors Basketball teams playing well.

All four of ALA's Warrior Basketball teams recorded wins within the past week and on Monday completed a sweep of Trinity Christian. The JH boys are undefeated so far in 1st place. The JH girls are in 2nd place and both the Varsity Girls and Varsity Boys are currently in 4th place with a busy week of games next week starting out with a trip to Harmony in NY on Tuesday. The JH teams host Ringwood Christian on the same day.
