ALA Wins Kindness Challenge!

voted for a student than stood out in fulfilling the "Law of Kindness" throughout the last month. The ALA Students planned and executed thousands of acts of Kindness last month. We are proud of the students after so many of them went above and beyond to bless others and show the love of God. Students continue to share the kindness as we have a collection in the office for a Christian school in Nairobi, Kenya that caught on fire.

National Geographic Finals, Bible Competition Finalists

Our Warriors have been studying US and World geography recently . 10 students advanced to the Finals to compete against one another. They are Andrew Hawley, Taylor Powell, Samantha Sandoval, Elana Cruz, Taylor McCloud, Cheyla Johnson, Hannah Morales, Terrance Wood, and Nadia Trujillo and the eventual champion John Guevara. John won the competition after answering Arctic Ocean correctly. He and Elana Cruz were tied for quite a few questions before he eventually won. John did record a perfect score in the preliminary rounds. Taylor McCloud placed 3rd in the competition.

John now goes on for a chance to compete in the State Finals. He will be taking a test next week to determine his eligibility. Congratulations to all of our top 10 finalists.

The Bible

JH Basketball teams compete at Timothy Christian tomorrow at 9 AM to 4 PM.
